

Amrithakatesh presents flute recital in the rain

CHENNAI, July 16: N. Amrithakatesh presented a lively flute recital under the umbrella as part of the mikeless Sunday Kutcheri in the park organized by Sundaram Finance on the morning of July 3, 2011 at Nageshwara Rao park here in Mylapore.

Amrithakatesh, a 10th standard student of PS Senior Secondary School, was focused in spite of the early morning drizzle. He has been learning flute for the last seven years from Sangeetha Kalanidhi Dr. N. Ramani and Sanjeev. He was given violin support by Papanasam Chandrasekhar. Shivshankar accompanied him on the mridangam. He presented popular songs such as Raghuvamsasudha (Kathanakuthulam, Adi), Nagumomu (Abheri, Adi), Chinnanchiru Kiliye(Ragamalika, Adi/Rupakam) and Bhagayanaya (Chandrajyothi, Adi).

Mr. T.T. Srinivasaraghavan, Managing Director of Sundaram Finance, was present on the occasion and handed over certificates and momentos. Sundaram Finance has been organising the monthly Sunday Kutcheri in the Park since February 2006 with the aim of providing opportunities to children aged below 15 years. Sundaram Finance conducts audition to select the artistes.
