

Aadithya Murali performs at Sunday Kutcheri in the Park

CHENNAI, April 6: Aadithya Murali, a student of National Public School, Gopalapuram, presented his maiden Carnatic music performance at the Sunday Kutcheri in the Park organised by Sundaram Finance at the Chess Square of the Nageswara Rao Park in Mylapore on April 5.

Accompanying the teenage vocalist in his debut Kutcheri were master R. Shyam on the violin and master Varun Ramaswamy on the mridangam, both students of Vidya Mandir.

Aadithya has been learning Carnatic music for the past eight years. His current guru is Sri V Subramanian.

Some of the songs Aadithya presented were Sri Parvati (Bowli), Brochi (Sri Ranjani), Brihadeshwarya (Sankarabaranam), Deva Deva (Maya Malava Gowla), Krishnam Vandey (Yaman Kalyani) and Rama Nanu (Hari Kambhoji).

T. T. Srinivasaraghavan, Managing Director, Sundaram Finance Ltd., presented certificates and mementos to the performing artistes.
